Foreword

TO THE YOUTH OF AMERICA

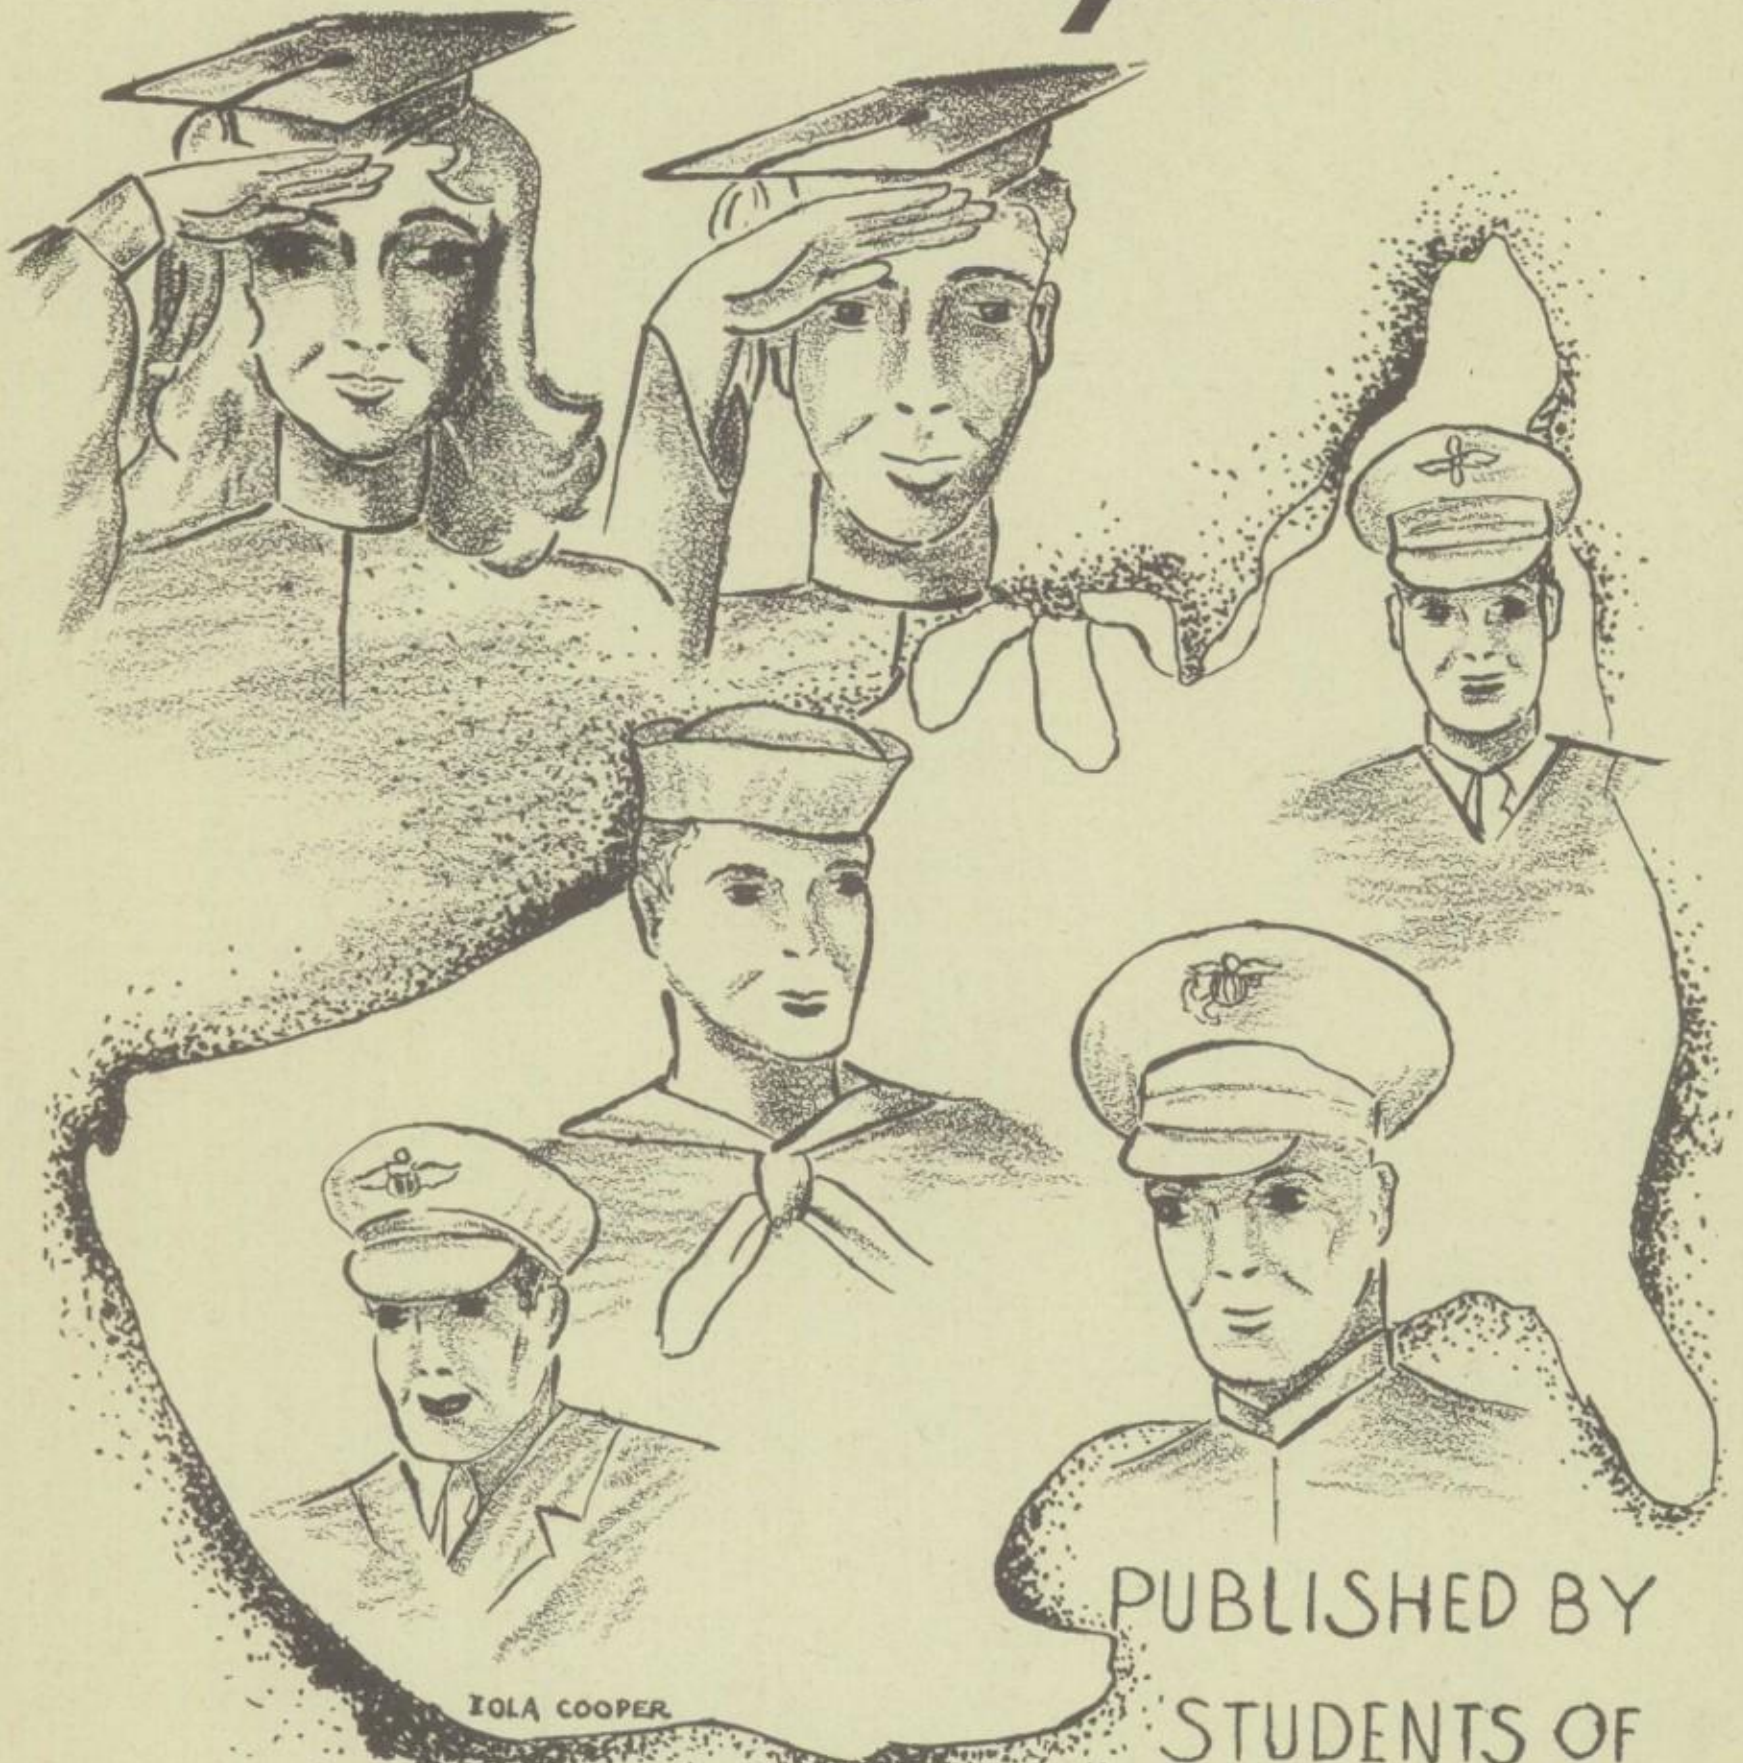

From every city, town, and crossroad of our great country they come. Physically tough, mentally alert, and morally sound, they are proud of their uniform, proud of their service, proud of their country. Embued with a willingness to die in defense of the principles for which this nation stands, they consider their duty to their country more important than life itself.

By developing our cherished yearbook around the theme of their activities, we wish, this year, humbly to evidence our profound appreciation of their sublime courage and heroic sacrifice. We know they will acquit themselves admirably, for that is an old American tradition.

We, the class of 1944, salute them!

Class

As we look back on the happy years that we have spent together, it is inevitable that we should find written large in our memories those events and achievements which have most memorably contributed to our progress as a class.

In 1940-41, as Freshmatic neophytes, we participated for the first time, in the creation of a representative form of government, which laid a solid foundation for our subsequent years of prosperity and abundance. We chose our class colors, blue and silver, the blue of the azure skies and the silver of the lining of its clouds, and for its everlasting beauty we selected the crimson rose as our class flower, while with the motto, "SUCCESS OUR AIM", we early showed that confidence in our collective abilities which has since so clearly vindicated itself.

In 1941-42, our Sophomore year, Mrs. Shannon was appointed our class adviser, and we chose as our class officers Robert Kihl, president; Beverly Southworth, vice-president; and Esther Finch, secretary-treasurer. We established our reputation for doing things thoroughly, thanks to our efficient adviser, by sponsoring a successful magazine sale and two popular dances. The juniors and seniors of that year, we ironically recall, prophesied for us a financial loss because no mere Sophomore class had ever engaged so expensive an orchestra. Their dire forebodings, however, fortunately proved groundless, for not only did we not lose money on the dance, but we realized a net profit of $1.65 for our class treasury.

Officers

ESTHER FINCH, Secretary

CHARLES CREED, Treasurer

History

In 1942-43, under the aegis of Robert Kimbrough, our Junior Class president, assisted by "Don" Simme, vice-president, Esther Finch, secretary, and Charles Creed, treasurer, we celebrated our Halloween and Christmas holidays with dances appropriate to those festive occasions, climaxing the social year with the annual Junior Prom, the motif of which was "Starlight Sonata", Charles Creed wearing the crown, complemented by Laura Lanthier as his royal consort.

The senior year was auspiciously inaugurated with the elections of Robert Ackman as our president; Fern Schmahl, our vice-president; and Esther Finch and Charles Creed, our secretary and treasurer, respectively. The senior play, "Skidding", directed by Mr. Bigelow, the most successful dramatic undertaking of recent years, both financially and artistically, aided by a sale of Christmas cards and a series of dances, filled our class coffers to the bursting point, while our Senior Ball, the social highlight of our four years of high school, was delightfully anticipated.

We can hope only that the future will hold for us an equal measure of the same good fellowship, prosperity, and happiness that have been ours during these happy years in Lancaster High School.

HOWARD MASON

ALFRED KOPF

ROBERT P. ACKMAN

General Academic

The strong, silent type. President of the class. "What would I do without Berent?" Perpetual blush.

HELENE D. BLAZEJEWSKA

Stenographic

Three "e's" is Helene. Garrulous, temperamental, but smart.

DAVID C. AHLSTROM

NANCY EWING	A hotel manager in gay Paris.
ESTHER FINCH	Going to college, trying to persuade the class not to elect her class secretary.
MARY FLADING	Still wondering what American History was about.
JANICE GOLDBACH	The ideal secretary.
WARREN GORENFLO	Still unable to convince Bigelow that his name isn't pronounced "Goren'flo".
KITTY GOULD	Still the wild woman she always was.
KENNETH GRAVES	An aeronautical engineer for Sikorski, working on new designs for a better helicopter.
HERMAN GROTH	An electrician, but he still can't get over the habit of sticking his fingers in sockets.
DONALD HAAG	The future "Gunder" after finally hastering his 2½ mile.
ROBERT HAEN	Trying to persuade people to elect him President of the United States.
JULIA HARMS	Running the Harms Beauty Farm.
CAROL HAVERNICK	Manager of a factory manufacturing "Havernick extra high heels for short people."
WILLIAM HENKE	"Handsome Bill", still looking for a woman.
RUSSELL HOLTZ	The ideal mortician.
NORMA HOPPE	Still going steady with Cornish.
SHIRLEY HORNUNG	A nurse in an Army hospital, but ending up marrying a 2nd Lieutenant.
MILDRED JANDZINSKI	Secretary to a rich cute businessman--also redheaded.

DEAN KAMINSKE	Playing football at Notre Dame and later coaching there.
ROBERT KIHLE	A barnstormer of the World War II variety.
ROBERT KIMBROUGH	Assistant aeronautical engineer to Kenneth Graves and eventually the caretaker at the city morgue.
RICHARD KINNEN	Buying a new car every year and removing all fenders for old times sake.
ROBERT KLING	Vainly trying to be on time for an appointment.
ALFRED KOPF	Chief surgeon at the Lancaster Dog Hospital.
IRWIN LANG	Finally achieving his goal--an elevator operator in a one-story building.
LAURA LANTHIER	Married to George and mother of two beautiful girls.
HAROLD LEIN	Successfully employing a "get rich quick" scheme and then retiring to a life of wine women and song (songs by the Lein Trio.)
PEGGY ANN LEININGER	Teacher and shining result of "The Leininger Memory Course".
LORRAINE LEUTLOFF	Selling plastic automobile chains for Western Auto Supply Company of which she is manager.
ROSE LUME	Making use of her high school experience in collecting attendance reports and acting as truant officer in East Podunk.
HOWARD MASON	Manager of the Masons Home for Homesick Helicopters.
HOWARD McALLISTER	Getting a remarkable score as an aerial gunner because he vibrates with the gun.
RAYMOND MEASER	Returning to L. H. S. to become the best male cheer leader in the business.
PHYLLIS MEIDENBAUER	Air hostess on a super-stratoliner flying daily over the great city of Lancaster.
FREDERICK MEYER	A chemical engineer famous for the improvements that he made on the processes he learned in Chem class.
HELEN MUCK	Telling the waitresses in the Muck Ice Cream Parlor the correct way to wait on tables from the voice of experience.
CARLETON MEYERS	The best car "fixer-upper" in the country.
WILLIAM NICHOLS	Appointed for a life term as the Commandant of the New York State Guard.
CAROL OFFHAUS	A receptionist for Doc Pearles helping to increase business.
SHIRLIE PEARLES	A famous doctor specializing in obstetrics.

MARY JANE RATAJCZAK	The future "Pistol Packin' Mamma".
NAN REYNOLDS	Looking for a man that doesn't have to look up at her.
BETTY RINE	Leaving a well-used rocking chair in her will to whoever wants it.
SHIRLEY RUSHER	A telephone operator at the Lancaster exchange.
JOSEPH SCALZETTA	Vainly trying to raise his son to be a big boy so that he can wear the "frat" sweater that was too long for papa.
FERN SCHMAHL	Still "wowing" the members of the opposite sex with her beautiful blonde hair.
ARLENE SCHMIDT	Racing for Lancaster in the Roller Derby.
ARLENE SCHNEIDER	Still trying, after her 4th hitch, to decide whether or not to stay in the WACS.
SUZETTE SCHNEIDER	A very nice wife and mother.
DONALD SIMME	Still single because he's too bashful to find the right woman.
BEVERLY SOUTHWORTH	Head of an old ladies' home.
LE ROY SYLIVS	A dynamite expert.
BETTY TORPY	Returning to L. H. S. every year to take the English regents to prove that she can still get the highest marks.
CHARLOTTE ULRICH	The most successful woman wrestler.
LEONORA VENTURA	Still working in an office and declaring that she won't work there another year.

DONALD WAAG	Getting his picture sent back from "The Lonely Hearts Institute" saying, "We're not that lonely."
DOROTHY WEBER	Successfully talking herself into the mayorship of Bowmansville.
ELIZABETH WHITTAKER	Joining the WAVES and sailing away to a romantic South Sea Island to be with guess who?
NORBERT WINIECKI	A forest ranger, but still telling stories that contain "If someone came at you with a beer bottle----"
WESLEY WINTERS	Proprietor of Winter's Haberdashery.
JEANNE WOELFLE	Mother of three cute girls and owner of the Woelfle Dress Shoppe.
DOROTHY WOJGIECHOWSKI	Head nurse at Buffalo General Hospital and in great favor among the internes.

Cayugan Staff

We, the class of 1944, wish to express our sincere gratitude to all who helped with this issue of the Cayugan.

To:

Mr. Bigelow and the English department for the composition and correction of the written articles.

Miss Smedley and the commercial department for all typing,

Miss Bates and the art students for the attractive designs and illustrations,

Mr. Schoenthal for arranging, Vari-Typing, and assembling all material,

Mr. Steinman for the photography,

All those who have sent pictures of service men,
and

All our patrons
we say, "Thank you."

With your assistance, we have produced this 1944 Cayugan, which we hope may be a worthy successor to the five splendid issues which have preceded it.

STANDING: B. Torpy, Miss Arletta M. Cowan, director, H. Blazejewski, L. Ventura, C. DeFries, R. Lume, P. Ericson, R. Kinnen, N. Ewing, W. Gorenflo, C. Havernick, P. Leininger, A. Kopf. SEATED: H. Lein, H. Mason, J. Harms, P. Meidenbauer, F. Price, B. Southworth, R. Measer, R. Kling.

Discussion Club

Under the leadership of Miss Arletta M. Cowan, the Discussion Club was organized to afford seniors an opportunity to discuss problems of current interest and to develop skill in research, discussion and leadership.

Officers include Floyd Price, general chairman; Beverly Southworth, vice-chairman; Phyllis Meidenbauer, secretary-treasurer.

Senior Play

The hilariously amusing Broadway "hit" of several years ago and the original Andy Hardy play, "Skidding," was the happy choice this year for our Senior play, which played to capacity houses Friday and Saturday evenings, November 23rd and 24th. We had the distinction, in fact, of being the first senior class, within the last decade at least, to reap such a rich financial harvest from the annual dramatic offering. This wholesome picture of American family life showed Marion Hardy, a college girl interested in politics, vivaciously played by Laura Lanthier, falling in love with Wayne Trenton, the scion of a wealthy family, convincingly portrayed by Harold Lein. The mother of the family, capably enacted by Julia Harms, on whose broad shoulders fell most of the onus of maintaining the family morale, was suitably complemented by the ever-judicious and dignified Judge Hardy, a role very effectively undertaken by Howard Mason, while the two daughters, who constituted the remainder of the family, were plausibly interpreted by Fern Schmahl and Beverly Southworth, not forgetting of course the inimitable and adorable "ANDY" Hardy, who, in the capable hands of William Nichols, virtually stole the show. Robert Kimbrough acquitted himself creditably as the absent-minded grandpa who was always reminiscing about Grandma, while Al Kopf injected life into the veins of this otherwise quiet play in the role of a hard-fisted politician. Betty Whittaker, as the repressed and rebellious Aunt Milly, showed considerable histrionic promise; we shall watch her career with eager expectancy.

Bob Kling, assisted by Ray Measer, as the ubiquitous and omniscient stage manager, certainly justified his local reputation with the hammer and saw. Special scenic effects were achieved by Miss Bates, Miss Studley, Mr. Brock, and Mr. Miles. The production was directed by Mr. Bigelow.

Band

Band, 1944 style, with a reduced membership and younger players, nevertheless maintained the good standards set by previous bands. This was accomplished in spite of war conditions.

This year the band played for the home football games, the Xmas Assembly Program, a Scout jamoree, two assembly programs, the May Festival and on several other occasions. The annual March concert was cancelled.

FOURTH ROW: N. Burzynski, M. Hess, M. Meline, I. Cooper, N. Reynolds, P. Leininger, T. Cornish, P. Meidenbauer. THIRD ROW: I. M. VanBuskirk, A. Schneider, A. Stutzman, D. Nowak, M. Reynolds, J. Davis, P. Haworth, A. Hart. SECOND ROW: B. Southworth, B. Rine, M. Bochenek, B. Coleman, S. Hornung, B. Klemp, M. Wirt, Mr. Marlo K. Schermerhorn, Director. FRONT ROW: J. Woelfle, R. Pereny, C. Miles, M. Manti, E. J. VanBuskirk, I. Lein, D. Leutloff

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls' Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Schermerhorn, has taken part this year in the assembly program on March twenty-fourth and the music festival on May fifth. The Glee Club, although it is one of the smallest in several years, is one of the best. The enthusiasm and cooperation of each member has accomplished this.

THIRD ROW: R. Miller, L. Ponds, A. Kopf, W. Henke, J. Abendschein, E. Howes, D. Ahlstrom, D. Wagg, L. Sylvis, R. Measer. SECOND ROW: B. Klemp, J. Woelfle, M. Reynolds, I. Cooper, M. Hess, A. Banasik, E. Basinski, D. Leutloff, Mr. Marlo Schermerhorn, Director. FRONT ROW: E. VanBuskirk, I. VanBuskirk, B. Southworth, P. Meidenbauer, C. Suess, M. Wirt, C. Miles, A. Stutzman.

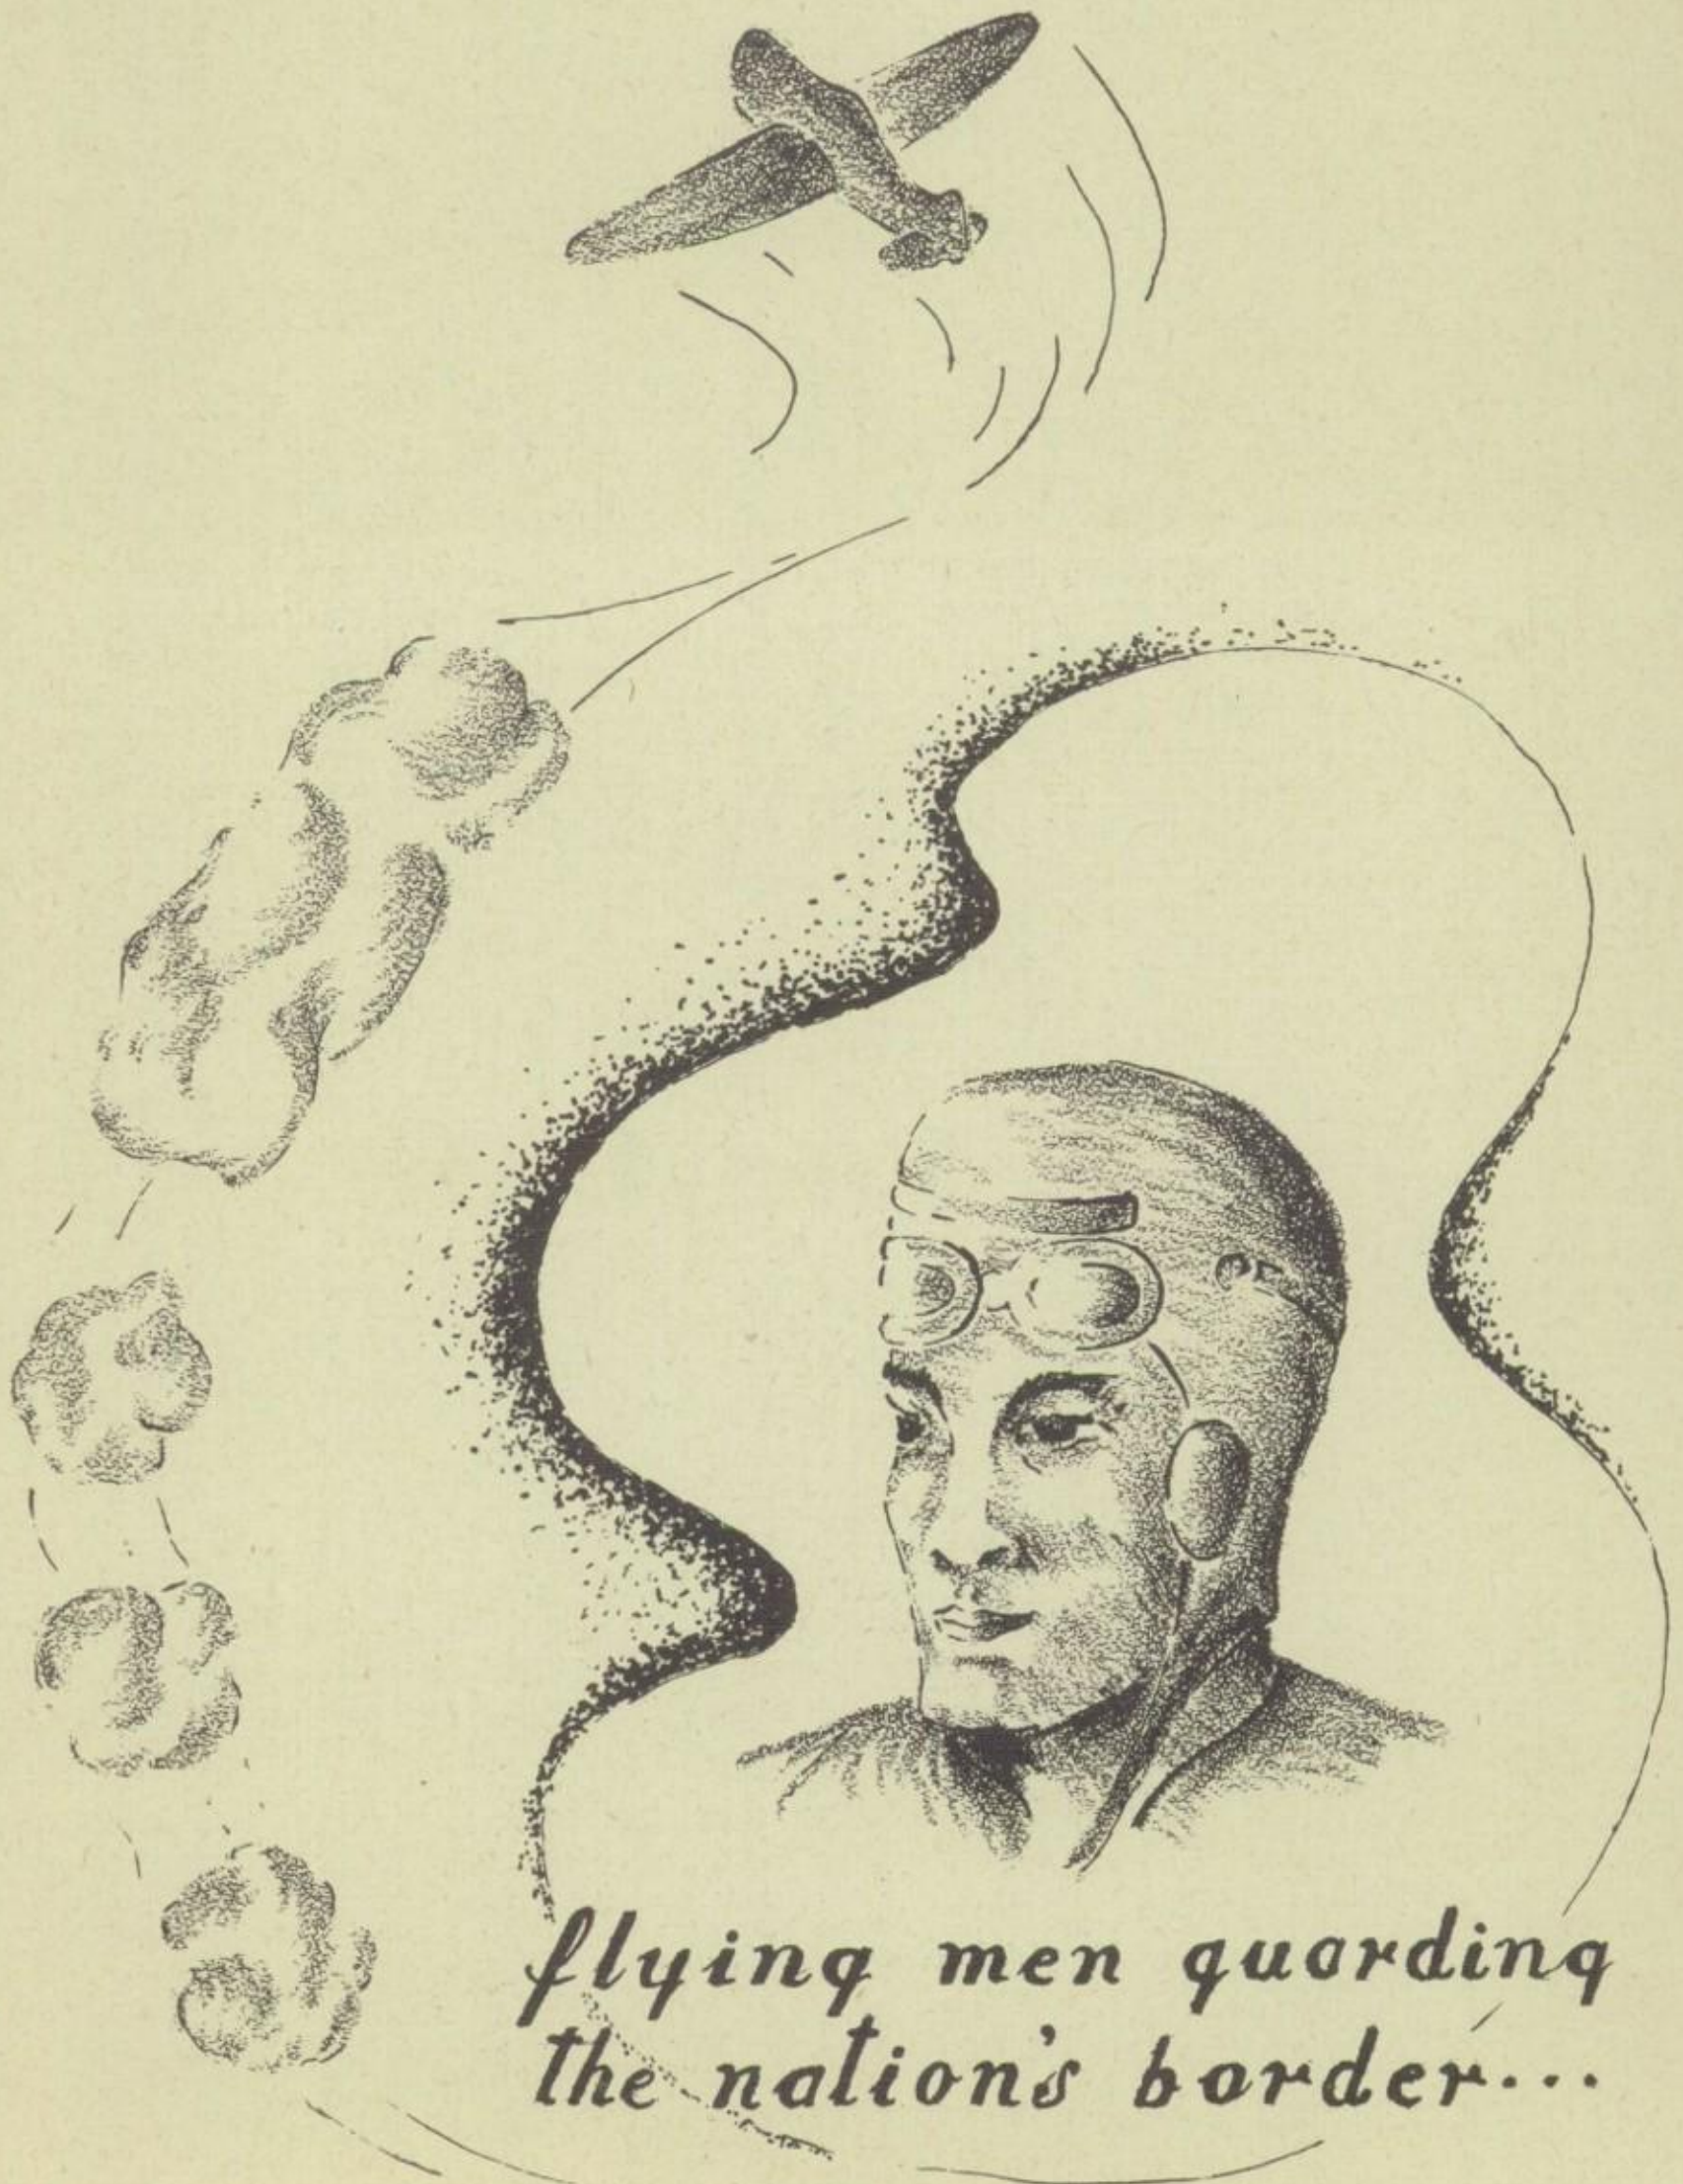

Mixed Chorus

The mixed chorus, consisting of thirty members, met every Monday and Friday under the direction of Mr. Marlo K. Schermerhorn. The chorus gave a Christmas Cantata featuring four guest soloists, and also participated in the May Festival.

The chorus, this year, was unusually well balanced due to the fact that the harmony parts were more equally divided.

The members in the student council from the chorus were Jack Abendschein and Dolores Leutloff.

Football

The 1943 L. H. S. Football Team, composed chiefly of untried material, experienced an extremely lean season. Headlining the season was Depew's 6 to 0 victory, which was played in a torrential downpour.

Players who will not return next year are R. Ackman, H. Mason, E. Berent. D. Simme, C. Creed, and D. Kaminske.

Basketball

Coach Frederick J. Karl initiated his first season as mentor of the basketball squad. Endeavoring to mould a team around three veterans, he did his best with what he had.

Edward Berent was high scorer with 130 points, while Robert Ackman was runner-up with 84 points.

Baseball

Last spring under the coaching reins of Mr. Marville C. Jamieson, the baseball squad attained a record of four wins and two losses. An exceptionally large squad was carried throughout the season. The loss of pitchers F. Gac and R. Heitz will be felt the most.

Track

The drastic curtailment of transportation permitted the holding of but three meets. In two triangular events Lancaster each time placed second, while capturing first place in the remaining dual meet.

Ralph Witkowski was undefeated in the mile, while F. Gac, E. Bosse, and H. Mason were consistent point getters.

STANDING: Mr. John J. Java, coach, M. Sabkiewicz, R. Snyder, D. Haag, R. Measer, V. Iudice. SEATED: E. Sandoval, R. Kimbrough, W. Gorenflo, D. Ahlstrom, H. Lein.

Cross-Country

The Maroon and Black 1943 Cross Country Team successfully defended the section six, class A cross-country championship which they earned in 1942. This year, however, there were only two meets. Because of wartime conditions, most of the schools dropped this sport, leaving only Gowanda and Lancaster. Although Lancaster lost some of their best men, they came through on top for the second undefeated year.

Rifle Club

Under the leadership of Mr. Arthur I. Brock, the Cayuga Junior Rifle Team has had an active year. Members of the team consider competition for medals presented by Washington Post 287, American Legion, as the high light of the season. First and second place medals are an annual presentation by the local Post and are awarded to boys and girls having the highest score in competition.

Officers of the club are: President, Craig DeFries; Vice-president, Virginia Bove; Secretary, Betty Whittaker; Treasurer, Betty Torpy.

Girls' Basketball

STANDING: J. Goldbach, S. Brown, R. Lume, R. Astri, F. Petrella, J. Brown. KNEELING: M. Ratajczak, B. Rine, P. Meidenbauer, A. Schmidt, N. Reynolds.

Every Thursday the girls met in the gym for a game of basketball. Each class had several teams, and at the end of the season the four teams with the most victories to their credit participated in the play-offs.

Girls' Volleyball

SECOND ROW: Margaret Hope, Mary Jane Ratajczak, Jane Brown.

The girls' interclass volleyball tournament has active teams from each class. Each fall the four high scoring teams participate in the playoffs.

Girl's Bowling

Bowling this year was open to any senior high girl who wished to take part. Each Wednesday at 3:45, under the direction of Miss Florence E. Gillette, the seniors met to try their skill against opposing teams from the sophomore and junior classes.

STANDING: Isabel MacAulay, Iris Lein, Anne Stutzman, Ina Mae VanBuskirk. KNEELING: Fern Schmahl, Janice Goldbach. ABSENT: Laura Lanthier

Cheer Leaders

The varsity squad of cheerleaders this year consisted of three seniors and four juniors. The five sophomores on the junior squad cheered for the Jay Vee's, and they will move to the varsity upon graduation of the seniors. Leading the entire group as captain was Fern Schmahl.

Each year sophomores will be trained to supply experienced cheerleaders for the varsity squad. We wish the boys would try a hand at it too.

FOURTH ROW: I. M. VanBuskirk, I. Lein, S. Girardin, V. Bove, D. Krieke, E. Pfohl, V. Flading, R. Damian. THIRD ROW: B. Coleman, A. Schneider, P. Leininger, J. Davis, S. Brown, I. Cooper, N. Reynolds, M. Gorenflo. SECOND ROW: B. Rine, F. Schmahl, A. Schmidt, P. Meidenbauer, R. Astri, F. Petrella, S. Hornung, A. Stutzman. FRONT ROW: J. Brown, J. Goldbach, B. Whittaker, S. Schneider, M. J. Ratajczak, R. Lume.

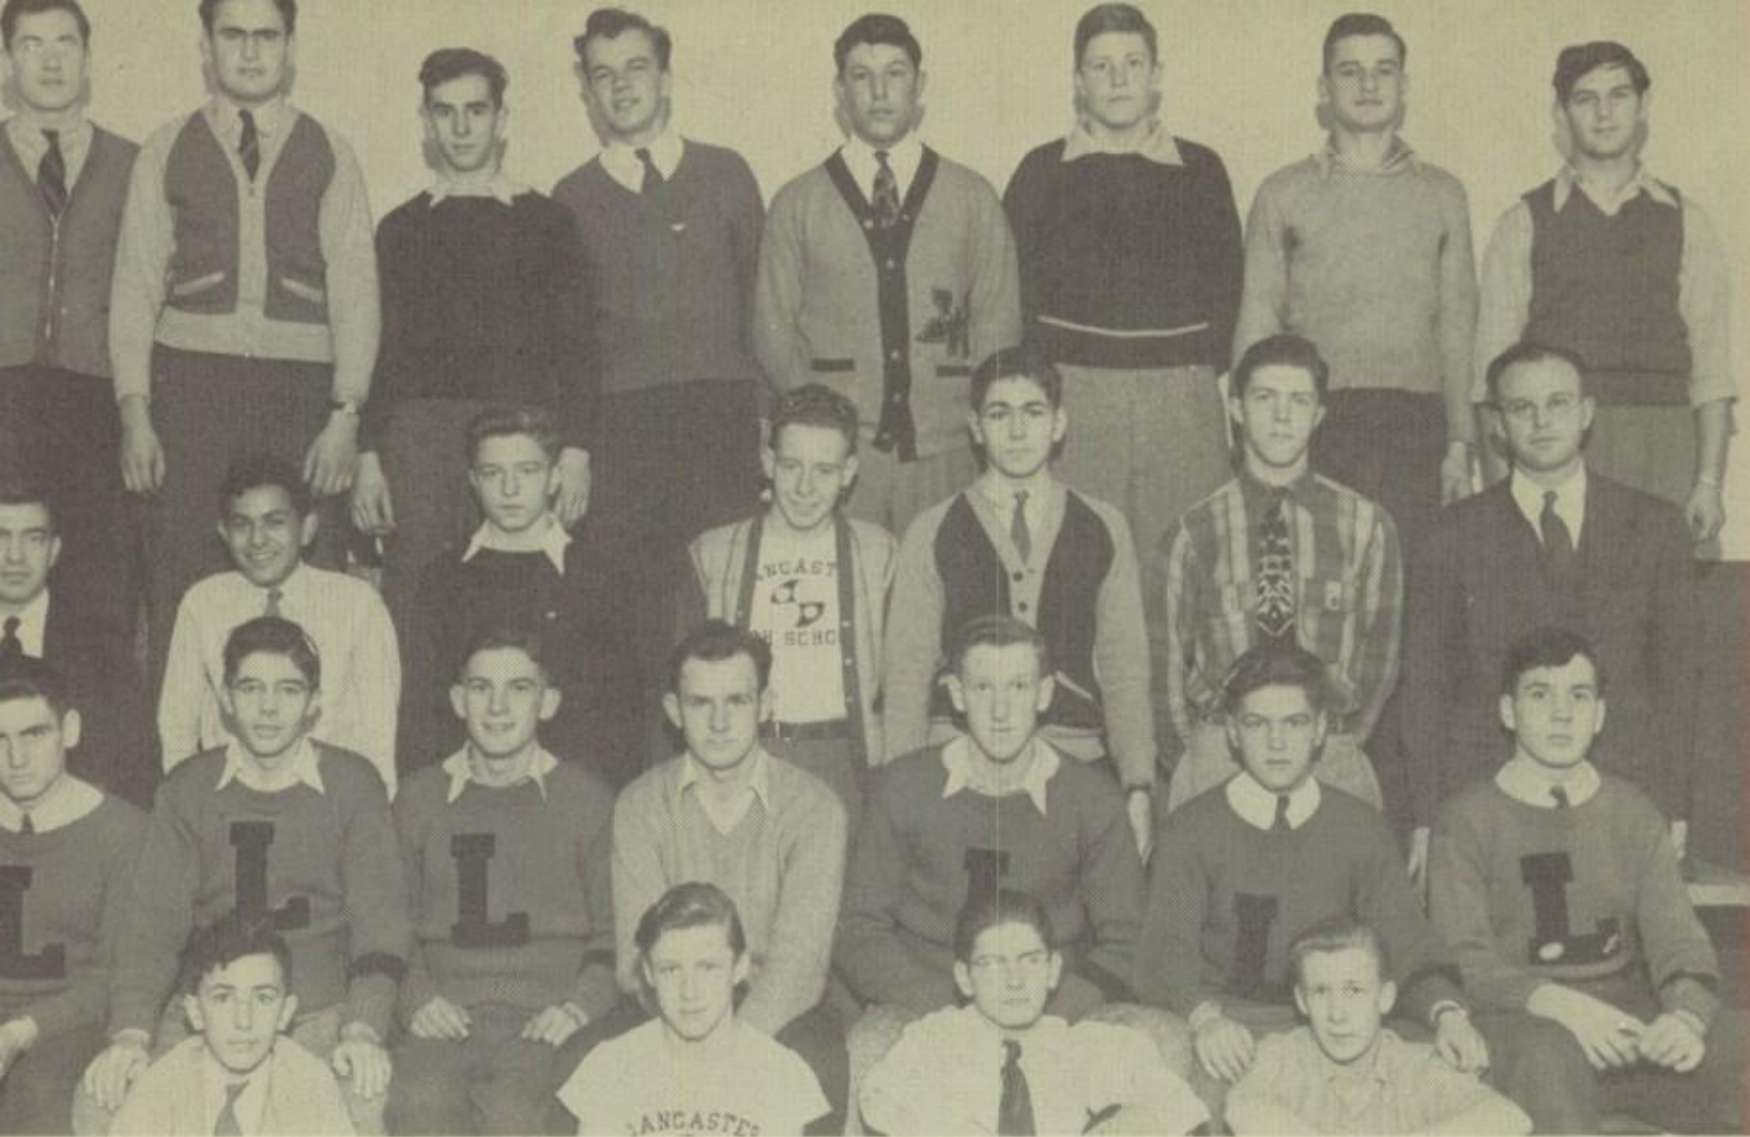

Old English L Club

The Old English L Club is the girls' athletic organization corresponding to the Block L Club of the boys.

Letter awards are won by gaining points through leadership, inter-class competition, extra-curricular activities, class work, and yearly improvement. At graduation, the senior member chosen by the faculty as "most all-around girl" is awarded a coveted miniature English L and five dollars.

The club sponsored a very successful baked goods sale and roller skating party. In April the Old English L and Block L held a joint party for members only.

President is Suzette Schneider; vice-president, Dorothy Krieke; secretary, Virginia Bove; treasurer, Betty Whittaker.

Block L Club

This organization, composed of senior and junior boys who have earned a letter in athletics, assists in the coordination of all sports events, combining at the end of the year with the Old English L in sponsoring a party for both groups.
